Caulfield Grammar School offers an exciting program in the Creative Arts, providing opportunities in Music and the Visual Arts, as well as an innovative program in Theatre Studies and Performance.

The School is pleased to make available two Theatre Scholarships for entry into Year 10 or Year 11 in 2024, at either the Caulfield or Wheelers Hill Campuses, for students who are able to demonstrate excellence and achievement in Theatre Performance.

Applicants will be required to prepare the following;

1. Application form, along with testimonials related to experience in Theatre activities to support the student's application.
2. NAPLAN results and a copy of the most recent full semester school report.
3. Solo monologue video. Applicants will be required to choose one monologue from a specified list of ten. Please request the list of monologues by contacting scholarships@caulfieldgs.vic.edu.au. This piece will be 2-3 minutes long, from age-appropriate playscripts, there will be a range of theatrical styles and characters to choose from. Students are encouraged to showcase their acting and performance skills and demonstrate creativity and an understanding of the text they have selected. Videos should be unedited and applicants are asked to perform for the camera as they would to live audience members within a school environment.
