

Application for Visual Arts Scholarship

Applications close Friday 4th June, 2021

Examinations to be conducted on Saturday 31st July, 2021

Entry into Year 10 and 11

Caulfield Grammar School offers an exciting Program in the Creative Arts, providing opportunities in Music and the Visual Arts, as well as an innovative program in Dance, Theatre Studies and Performance.

The School is pleased to make available two Visual Arts Scholarships for entry into Year 10 or 11 in 2022, at either the Caulfield or Wheelers Hill Campuses to girls and boys. Directed at students with an aptitude in one or more of Art, Visual Communication & Design, Media and Photography the Scholarship aims to provide students with an opportunity to pursue their interests in an environment which provides state-of-the-art facilities together with excellent teaching and learning.

Applicants will be required to prepare the following;

1. Application form, along with testimonials to support the student's application.
2. NAPLAN results and a copy of the most recent school report.

These should be scanned and emailed to the Scholarship Office at scholarships@caulfieldgs.vic.edu.au, along with any additional information to support the student's application.

Selection of students for Visual Arts Scholarships will be made on the basis of successful folio presentation consisting of 4 pieces, exam and interview. Testing is being held later in the year to enable applicants to prepare their presentation folio of material throughout the year, in the normal course of their visual arts study.
